

However, I would like to make this final point of encouraging our colleagues to support H.R. 3598, which would put a primary focus, rightfully so, on water-related issues as the Department of Energy deals with the innovation economy that is sparked by energy efficiency and energy technology research. To do that optimizes the outcome, and I think it's a very strong bill.

I congratulate the Chair and the ranking member on behalf of the work they've done on H.R. 3598.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. TONKO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 3598, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

MOMENT OF SILENCE IN MEMORY OF FOUR WASHINGTON SLAIN OFFICERS

(Mr. DICKS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Speaker, following the tragic shooting that took the lives of four police officers in Lakewood,

Washington, early Sunday morning, I strongly believe it is appropriate for the House of Representatives to observe a moment of silence in the Chamber today. These four officers, Mark Renninger, Ronald Owens, Tina Griswold, and Greg Richards, were preparing to start their shift last Sunday morning when they were brutally murdered by an assailant who has now died as police were attempting to apprehend him.

These were dedicated and hard-working members of the city of Lakewood police force in my district. They were senselessly murdered, presumably at random, by a deranged killer, and they each left families and children who deserve our deepest sympathy.

This is a somber moment, Mr. Speaker, and I know my Washington State colleague, Congressman DAVE REICHERT, a former sheriff who spent more than 30 years in law enforcement, understands the human impact of this tragedy and knows the risk that law enforcement officers face each and every day in assuring that all of us are safe in our homes and in our communities.

I yield to Congressman REICHERT.

Mr. REICHERT. I thank the gentleman for yielding. I know sometimes it's hard to pause for just a second in the busy lives that we lead here in the Capitol of this great country, but today we must. We must stop and pause and think about, first of all, how safe we are, and why. Because men and women who are wearing the uniform across this country sacrifice their lives for us. And on Sunday morning, 2 days ago, three police officers and their sergeant went to work. Went to work. They paused for a moment at a coffee shop, had their laptops out, talking about the day that they were just about to begin. Somebody walked in and took their lives away—all four.

In total, they left behind nine children. This was just 1 month after a Seattle police officer by the name of Timothy Brenton was ambushed and murdered, leaving behind two more children.

All I can say is that we thank them for their service. When you see somebody in uniform, pause, thank them for what they do, express sympathy for the loss of their partners and loved ones. And please, I ask that you keep their families in your thoughts and prayers.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members will rise and observe a moment of silence.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, 5-minute voting will continue.

There was no objection.
